

GAC India Project Logistics

The muscle to move any project cargo locally and globally

Big projects mean the transportation of big, heavy and sometimes out-of-gauge parts.

Moving such shipments takes skill, experience and the right equipment – GAC provides the muscle to shoulder any project cargo movement from the source to the destination.

Delivering your strategy.

GAC India provides the muscle to shoulder any project cargo movement from the source to the destination.

With GAC Group's global network and solid track record in developing and executing complex project logistics solutions, we are the partner with whom you can entrust your load.

Established in 1983, GAC India has grown steadily to become a leading provider of shipping and logistics services in the country and the region. Headquartered in Cochin, GAC India operates 28 other fully fledged and ISO 9001 certified branch offices across the country.

Total logistics capabilities

At GAC India, we focus on delivering logistics solutions across the region with accuracy and flexibility. We can manage projects of any size from single domestic delivery to complex, multi-shipment and multi-modal projects.
