When things go wrong on board or in port, time is of the essence. That's why a P&I (Protection & Indemnity) correspondent's speedy response is critical.

P&I Clubs need prompt action and timely communication to ensure that any claims arising from incidents involving their members' vessels are fully investigated, documented and their financial exposure minimised.

Global coverage, local expertise

A reputed leader in its field, GAC handles incidents and claims competently and professionally - all the way from initial notification to the final conclusion. In addition to initial guidance and advice in the aftermath of an incident, GAC conducts marine surveys, arranges for bank guarantees, when required and proactively handles the files, provides reports regularly to the Clubs and their members. GAC represents all 12 International Group Clubs as their correspondents, as well as 12 fixed Premium Clubs in the Middle East.

Our correspondents are located in key maritime hubs across Asia Pacific and the Indian Subcontinent, including Brunei, Indonesia, India, Malaysia, Singapore, Sri Lanka and Thailand. Our close ties with local government and port authorities have ensured the successful release of vessels and disembarkation / repatriation of stowaways and assistance with major casualties in the region.
